

2017/18 Winter Programme

Welcome to the FBI 2017/18 winter season of talks.

Everyone is welcome, but children must be accompanied by a responsible adult.

Talks are in the Evron Centre Conference Room, John St., Filey at 7 pm

Free of charge.
Raffle to cover costs.
(Raffle prizes are always welcome)

Contact Chairman:
Aileen Newbury:
aileennewbury@aol.com
www.discoverfiley.co.uk

Discover Filey
LandShoreSea

2017

Thursday October 19th Flights to Filey & The Turtle Dove Project

Presentations by Mark Pearson and Richard Baines

Expect some stunning wildlife pictures

Thursday November 16th In and Around Filey's Old Church

A talk by archaeologist John Buglass

Thursday December 14th A History of Lifeboats in Filey

John Ward of Filey RNLI tells how it was (and is)

2018

Thursday January 18th The Geology of Filey Bay Including The Brigg, Clay & Chalk Cliffs

A talk by geologist Stuart Swann

Thursday February 22nd T'Fisherfolk of Filey Bay

Historian and musician Dan Eaton investigates the stories behind a 19th century book of dialect poems and sets them to music.

Thursday March 15th From Earls to Engineers: Wealthy Victorian Visitors to Filey and their Homes

Local architecture historian
George Sheeran explores Filey's Victorian visitors and the homes that some built here.

For updates: look out for posters or see Filey Bay Today